Cher coming to Caesars Palace for three-year stint

The entertainment capital of the world has done it again. Las Vegas is buzzing with the news that Cher will soon join the impressive list of headliners who have called the city home.

The pop icon has signed on to perform approximately 200 shows over a span of three years in the 4,300-seat theatre The Colosseum at Caesars Palace beginning May 6.

As audiences have come to expect from Las Vegas, Cher at The Colosseum will be nothing short of spectacular. During the 90-minute show Cher will perform her chart-topping hits from across the decades supported by a team of dancers, state-of-the-art lighting and special effects and costumes by renowned fashion-designer Bob Mackie who is responsible for creating most of Cher's unique and often over-the-top outfits and costumes.

Cher will join an impressive list of performers to grace The Colosseum stage. The venue was home to Celine Dion's A New Day which ended its five-year run in December 2007. The Colosseum currently hosts Elton John's The Red Piano and will soon be home to Bette Midler whose over-the-top production, The Showgirl Must Go On is starting on February 20, 2008.

Tickets for Cher are on sale now and can be purchased online at www.ticketmaster.com. Ticket prices are US$95, US$149, US$175 and US$250. Visit cher.aeglive.com for more information on Cher at The Colosseum at Caesars Palace.
