

BABY BOOMERS

You've emptied the nest and now you want to head to Las Vegas to let your hair down and enjoy the good life. Here's a selection of the best of Las Vegas for you!

SHOWS

Clint Holmes

Clint Holmes and his dynamic 12-piece band deliver an unforgettable show! The son of an American jazz performer and a British opera singer, Clint Holmes takes audiences on the journey of his life through song.

Le Reve- Wynn Las Vegas

This Cirque du Soleil visual feast is performed in, on and above a 1.5 million gallon pool of water! Hold your breath as 81 international artists blow you away with their grace, costuming and majestic performances.

Danny Gans, The Mirage

Danny wows crowds with his phenomenal show of singing, impressionism, comedy and acting.

Jubilee - Bally's

Classic Las Vegas - this spectacular production features showgirls with spectacular costumes and extravagant sets.

ATTRACTIONS

Golf & Spa

There are over 60 golf courses in Las Vegas. Have a round together and follow it up with a relaxing and indulgent spa.

Liberace Museum

See his one-of-a-kind automobiles, lavish costume collection, remarkable furs and breathtaking stage jewellery.

RENEW YOUR WEDDING VOWS!

If you've gone the hard yards and managed to build and hold on to a successful marriage, why not have a bit of fun on your Las Vegas trip and renew your vows?

SHOPPING

Fashion Show Mall

The largest shopping arena in Las Vegas has eight department stores and hundreds of specialty stores and permanent catwalks.

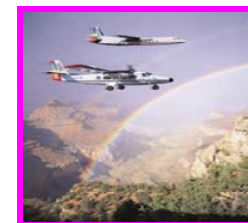

TOURS

Lake Mead Cruise

A relaxing way to spend a few hours amid the tranquility on a desert lake.

The Grand Canyon

Take a helicopter or scenic flight out to the Grand Canyon for views and angles you can't get from the ground.

EATS

You'll have a ball exploring Las Vegas restaurants. Architecture plays a big role in many of them and they are spectacular. These are two indulgent restaurants in Las Vegas:

Picasso, Bellagio

French Recipient of the prestigious five diamond award Picasso's walls are graced with original paintings and sculptures from the master himself.

Eiffel Tower Restaurant, Paris LV

French with views directly over the Bellagio fountains and exquisite french food.